

To Staples town you can go now
To see the one of your heart,
But we can't agree,
And I'll refuse thee,
Then from me you will have to part Then to a saloon you can retire for You know well no tongue can tell That I have any love for you, Cho, —

Sammy, Sammy
My answer I'll not give,
So you'll have to go crazy just for the love of me,
And I'll ride in a carriage when Ed and I are joined in marriage,
And you can kick up your feet And run down the street to get out of the way of us two,
Of course you know it is plain to see
There is no hope for thee But just the same you can be in the game, but my love for you I'll not give, And when I am out of your sight, for you it will I have to be one dark night, And you can feel at your ease or not to return your love that I have spurned although you say you ask it on bended knee it is some thing I never will do
