My dear Mr. Dimond:

My son had told me of your letters to him and his inability to furnish you with many details concerning our family. So I am sending you our little book of genealogy for reference. Several births and deaths have been entered in pencil.

Miranda Capen Dimond, widow of Nathan J. Morrison, is living in Wichita, Kansas. My son, Douglas Marquand Dimond, is married and living in New York City. He has one son, six months old. These, with my son Bushnell, christened Asa Bushnell, and my daughter Henrietta, constitute our branch of the family.

It is a great pleasure to aid you in your work, and I wish you all success.

When you have quite finished with the book, which I am sending, will you kindly return it, as I should not know where to get another.

Sincerely and with best wishes, I am,

Yours very truly,

Idarriet B. Dimond

My dear Mr. Diamond,

I am writing to let you know that since I have returned from Europe I have changed my address, and also to remind you of the book of the Dimond genealogy which I loaned you some time ago. I would greatly appreciate it if you would return the same to me at the above address at your earliest possible convenience.

Yours very truly,

(Mrs. I. C.) Idarriet B. Dimond
